

Office of Historic Preservation in cooperation with the California Preservation Foundation and the City of San Diego

HISTORICAL RESOURCES SURVEYS FOR LOCAL GOVERNMENTS

Thursday, February 26, 2004
Taylor Branch Library
4275 Cass Street
San Diego (Pacific Beach)

9:00 Check in

9:30 am WELCOME/INTRODUCTION
Lucinda Woodward, Moderator
Supervisor of Local Government and Information
Management Programs
California Office of Historic Preservation

9:45 am WHAT LOCAL GOVERNMENTS NEED AND WANT
Working with consultants--The importance of survey information for local government planning—How local governments use survey information--Integration of survey information into planning and CEQA—Ordinances and establishing evaluation criteria

Panel discussion:
Cathy Wahlstrom, Senior Planner, City of Ontario
Diane Kane, Senior Planner, City of San Diego Anthea Hartig, Professor History at La Sierra University and Chair of the State Historical Resources Commission

10:45 am Break

11:00 am THE COMPREHENSIVE, CITYWIDE HISTORIC RESOURCE SURVEY: LEARNING LESSONS

Kathryn Welch Howe, Los Angeles Historic Resource Survey
Project, Getty Conservation Institute

11:30 am CONTEXT-BASED SURVEYS—HOW TO MAKE EFFECTIVE EVALUATIONS

Marie Nelson, Survey Coordinator, California Office of Historic Preservation and Adjunct Professor of History, American River College

Anthea Hartig, Professor of History at La Sierra University and Chair of the State Historical Resources Commission

12:30pm Lunch

1:45pm COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT IN THE SURVEY PROCESS

Janet Hansen, Historic Preservation Specialist, City of Riverside

2:45pm Break

3:00pm USING TECHNOLOGY TO STREAMLINE THE SURVEY PROCESS

Geoff Starns, Associate Planner, City of Ontario
Janet Hansen, Historic Preservation Specialist, City of Riverside

4:00pm Closing Remarks/Questions